

EXPERIENCING GOD

Wong
Fall, 2009

Scope & Sequence

Through various prayer experiences and a study of several Christian mystics, this course enables students to explore their relationships with self, God, others and creation both intellectually and affectively. Fostering integration of body, mind and spirit in the development of one's personal spirituality is a primary focus of this class.

Course Benchmarks and Performance Standards

Students completing the Experiencing God course will:

- Identify, describe and express appreciation for fundamental aspects of Christian mysticism
- Explain and practice various forms of meditation and prayer
- Realize the importance of living a healthy, balanced life, which allows adequate time for prayer, rest, play and work
- Recognize that an attitude of respect and care for self, others and all created beings is essential to Christian spirituality
